Track parts in your inventory quickly and easily.

Online Transaction Log for POWER

The Information You Want

In addition to the transaction display, Online Transaction Log provides three types of reports:

- Get an overview of changes in inventory value over a specific period of time with the Kardex Part Report.
- Use the Part Sales Report to evaluate customer purchasing patterns, delivery routes, and the productivity of your outside sales force.
- Print hard copies of your transaction reports with the Online Transactions Journal.

Customer Driven

Identify customer wants and needs with the power of Online Transaction Log. Review vital data of customer parts purchases. This data can be used to help negotiate prices with customers and decide whether or not to allow a customer to make purchases on credit.

Improved Inventory

Track your parts inventory transactions easily and efficiently. View real-time transaction history and comprehensive reports to better manage your inventory for greater profitability. Get Online Transaction Log for POWER and let Reynolds help you make your business better.
